The Top Seeds – Top Half

Charles Sharpes

This year's number one men's seed is Wimbledon Racquets and Fitness Club's home star player. Yet to win the Wimbledon Cup at his own club, the number 61 in the world will be looking to add his name to some of the games greats on the honour board.

Yathreb Adel

The number one ladies seed also has a strong connection with WR&FC as she trains at the club whilst studying at the University of Roehampton. The 19 year old from Cairo is already 26 in the world and is one to watch out for while she climbs the rankings.

The Top Seeds – Bottom Half

Ben Coleman

The men's number two seed couldn't be any closer to the number one seed in the world rankings, positioned at number 62. Ben is well known to WR&FC after his 4 successful years with the club in the Surrey Cup.

Madeline Perry

WR&FC is delighted to be welcoming back the former world number 3 and Irish number 1, as the ladies two seed this year. Madeline is the current defending ladies champion and will be looking to use her experience to add another title to her name.

Thoughts from WR&FC Head of Squash

Phil Rushworth

Firstly I'd like to welcome all the players to Wimbledon Racquets & Fitness Club and wish everyone the best of luck during this year's Wimbledon Cup.

There is a long standing history with the event which goes back to 1936 boasting some fine players that have won the event over the years, including our very own BSPA tour director Tim Garner!

We decided to move the event away from the British Junior Closed Championships this year to give the younger players the opportunity to experience the event. From this change we have seen an increase in entries across both the men's and ladies draws.

I hope all the players enjoy their experience of the 2015 Wimbledon Cup and we have a fantastic event played in a great spirit!
